

Nursing homes remembered all year

K mart 3470, Kimberly, WI — Barb Le Beau reports that their Easter Rabbit will be making a trip to the local nursing home to have lunch in April with the residents.

Arrangements are also being made to present the women patients with flowers and the men will receive a small gift too.

The employees at 3470 feel that all too often these people are remembered at Christmas time by all sorts of organizations but are forgotten during the rest of the year. They hope to change that situation, starting with the Easter season.

Checkout operator in All-Star tourney

K mart 4412, Wood River, IL — Debbie Yost is 6 feet 1 inch and plays basketball for Lewis and Clark Community College. She is the team's leading scorer and rebounder.

She has been selected to play in the Illinois all-star game. Debbie has been working at 4412 since 1979 as a part time checkout operator. She will finish her business courses at college this year.

A penny saved is nothing compared to saving $17,000

K mart 3007, North Little Rock, AR — Thanks to office cashier Antje Smith, Brenda Nolan reports that the store has saved $17,122 on an electric bill.

When the electric bill arrived in the mail, it was double the usual amount. The office manager and other office employees called the electric company. They were told that the bill was correct.

Antje called them and requested a billing print-out for the year of 1981. When she received the print-out, they had charged the store for two months, instead of one. She called the company back and the bill was corrected.

DECA students go to nationals in July

K mart 7161, Ottumwa, IA — Two employees at 7161 are associated with the DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) program.

Matt Draper and Matt Heckart went to Burlington, IA for their area leadership conference recently.

Heckart received honorable mentions overall in his events. Draper finished first overall in general merchandising.

The competitive events were in apparel and accessories, restaurant marketing, general merchandising, food marketing, and service station retailing.

Both of the men went to Des Moines for the state Leadership Conference recently. Draper received a first place trophy for general merchandising. He also received a minimum competency which is over 70 percent of two written tests one for which he also received an honorable mention. Draper received minimum competency and honorable mentions for human relations and communications.

Heckart received third place in general merchandising in the master employee level.

Both will go onto the national competition which will be in Chicago, Illinois June 26 through July 1.

Mississippi Mud Cakes

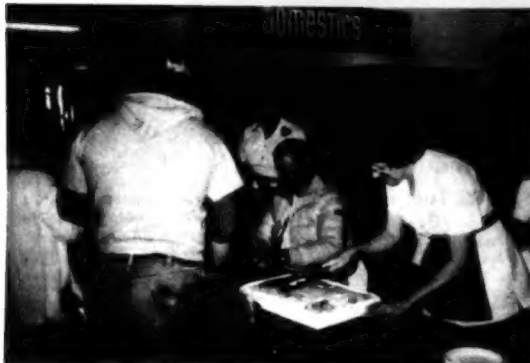

- 1 cup softened margarine
- 1 1/3 cup unsweetened cocoa
- 4 eggs
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 cup moist style coconut
- 1 cup chopped walnuts
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 jar (7 1/2 oz.) marshmallow creme
- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour

Using electric mixer, cream butter in large bowl. Slightly beat eggs and add to butter, a little at a time, mixing well. Add coconut, sugar, flour, cocoa, vanilla, and walnuts. Mix together. This is a heavy batter. Do not beat. Spread batter in greased 9x13x2" pan. Bake at 350° for about 45 to 50 minutes. Immediately after out of oven, spread marshmallow creme over top. Let cool 20 minutes.

Frosting: Mix together 1/2 cup softened margarine, 6 Tbsp. milk, 1 1/3 cup unsweetened cocoa, 1 box (1 lb.) confectioners sugar, unsifted. Use slow speed and gradually work up to higher speed as ingredients blend together. Stir in 1/2 cup walnuts. Frost cake and swirl through the marshmallow creme. Sprinkle 1/2 cup walnuts on top.
